Frequently Asked Questions
The AEC Final Exam – The ITP TOEFL and the Timed Essay

1. When is the AEC Final Exam?
The AEC Final Exam is on Saturday, December 5.

2. Where should I go to take the AEC Final Exam?
You will receive a letter in one of your AEC classes later to tell you where to go for the AEC Final Exam.

3. When can I get the results from the AEC Final Exam?
Results will be available beginning Tuesday, December 15 at 1:30 pm.

4. Do I have to stay in town to pick up my results?
   If you are on probation at the AEC, you must stay in town to pick up your results.
   If you are a KUAAP student, talk with AAP staff in 578 Watson before making travel plans.
   Other students may leave after testing.

5. Who takes the AEC Final Exam?
   All AEC students in Levels 1-4 take the AEC Final Exam. Students in two Level 5 classes who have received grades of A or B in their classes do not take the AEC Final Exam. However, if a student has two Level 5 classes and receives an A or B in one class and a C, D, or F in the other, that student will need to take the AEC Final Exam.

6. If I have already passed one skill area, do I still need to take all parts of the AEC Final Exam?
Yes, the AEC Final Exam will not be broken into parts. All students who must take the AEC Final Exam (see #5 above) must take ALL PARTS of the AEC Final Exam.

7. If I get an A or B in my classes, do I have to take the AEC Final Exam?
   Yes. See #5 above.

8. If I get a C in my classes, do I have to take the AEC Final Exam?
   Yes. See #5 above.

9. If I get a D or F in my classes, do I have to take the AEC Final Exam?
   Yes. See #5 above.

10. How is the TOEFL ITP different from the TOEFL iBT?
The TOEFL ITP that you will take at the end of the semester is called “The Institutional TOEFL.” That means that it is only used at this institution—the Applied English Center. It is used to determine your placement in the program and your ability to exit the program. You cannot use the score at any other university. Similarly, you cannot use a TOEFL iBT for placement at the AEC.

   Some differences:
   - The TOEFL ITP is shorter than the TOEFL iBT.
   - There is no speaking part on the TOEFL ITP.
   - Since the TOEFL ITP is on paper, you can preview some of the questions.

For additional information, ask the AEC Front Desk for the TOEFL ITP information packet.
